

Dr. Joachim Brunswicker

CFO
Röchling Engineering Plastics Group

Dr. Joachim Brunswicker, born on March 11, 1955 in Hagen in North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany, received a graduate degree in business administration from the University of Münster. From 1982 to 1986, he worked as a research associate at the Institute of Econometrics and Economic Statistics at the University of Münster, where he earned a doctorate (Dr. rer. pol.) in 1985. Dr. Brunswicker began his professional career at the Wicküler-Küppers Brewery group in Wuppertal and Cologne. In 1990, he became a member of management and in 1992 commercial director with sole power of representation at the holding company. In 1995, Dr. Brunswicker moved to the Bremen-based Woll-Kämmerei AG as financial director. He joined Röchling Engineering Plastics KG in 1999 as Commercial Director. At the same time, Dr. Brunswicker was made Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the Röchling Engineering Plastics Group.